Waiver and Release of Liability

I _____ (owners name) am allowing my horse _____ (horses' name) to receive massage therapy. I understand that massage is not a substitute for medical treatment or medications, and that it is recommended that I work with my Veterinarian for any medical conditions that my animal may have. I understand that any of the massage sessions are for the purpose of stress reduction, relief from muscular tension, general relaxation and improvement of circulation and range of motion.

I understand that the Registered Equine Massage Therapist cannot diagnose illness or disease, cannot prescribe medications. I understand that any information provided by the Massage Therapist is for educational purposes only, and is not diagnostically prescriptive in nature.

I have informed the Massage Therapist of all my animal's known physical conditions, limitations, medical conditions and medications. It is my responsibility to update this information with the Therapist and contact my Veterinarian if my animal's physical condition, limitations, medical condition or medications should change.

By signing this release, I hereby waive and release the Massage Therapist listed below from any and all liability, past, present and future, relating to massage and bodywork.

What can you expect with your first visit?

The first time I meet a horse, I will want to perform a dynamic assessment, seeing your horse move either in hand, on the lunge line, or under saddle, based on the concerns you have and what I may want to have a closer look at. In this, I am looking at the whole horse in motion to determine areas of weakness, imbalance, pain, or restriction. This will be followed by a full palpatory assessment, and range of motion assessment to isolate and identify specific concerns and their cause. The treatment itself will then be tailored to your specific horse, and consist the use of sports massage therapy techniques, and a combination of any stretching, remedial exercises, hydrotherapies, cryotherapy, and kinesiology taping applications if applicable. You will then be provided with a series of home care recommendations to address your concerns and provide support care between treatments. These recommendations may consist of stretching routines, under saddle exercises, hydrotherapy, massage, stable management and nutritional suggestions, chiropractic follow up, or veterinary assessment should that be required. I look at the WHOLE horse. Not simply his/her "ouchy" muscles ☺ You should allow 1.5-2 hours in your schedule for the initial visit, and 1-1.5 hours for any follow up treatments.

Cancellation Policy

I must be provided with a minimum of 24 hours notice in the case of having to cancel or reschedule. In the spirit of fairness, I do my best to always provide my client with the same courtesy! Both my time, and yours, is valuable, and I always strive to do right by my clients with regards to last minute changes, and hope they will return the respect and courtesy to the best of their ability. I understand that some circumstances are unpredictable and unavoidable. Below are the fee's charged in the event of last minute cancellation, or no-show, taxes are included in the pricing.

- Under 24hrs cancellation - $20
- No-Show – Full fee including quoted mileage

How to prepare for your massage therapists visit

Please try to have the horse in the barn, dry, and cleaned with mud removed from body and legs (to the best of your ability-east coast weather doesn't always cooperate!) for the time of treatment. I suggest using a rainsheet if the horse has to be turned out in the morning and there is the potential for rain, or them finding a mud pit to roll in!

Please avoid using any form of hoof paints or oils within the few days prior to your horses massage. These product end up on my hands and clothing, and though I am quite comfortable with the concept of dirt, my poor wardrobe tends to take a beating!

Also, please avoid using Show Sheen or similar coat conditioners within the few days prior to your horses treatment. These products create a slippery film on the coat, making certain techniques difficult to perform, and kinesiology tape impossible to adhere. Please notify your therapist ahead of time if there have been any changes to the horses medication or care routine. Thank you!

I look forward to working together to help your horse feel and perform its best!
